SECTION III - TERMS OF REFERENCE

Introduction

Kenya Tourism Board (KTB) is a body corporate established as a State Corporation under the Legal Notice No. 14 and is now enshrined in the Tourism Act No. 28 of 2011 and is charged with the statutory mandate of promoting and marketing Kenya as a tourist destination locally and internationally.

Background

The Kenya Tourism Board (KTB) will be launching a region specific (AFRICA) consumer media campaign from July 2016 to enhance positive visibility of the destination. Africa is a region that offers highest future potential arrivals into Kenya from a tourism perspective and thus a key area of investment for the tourism board. Regional tourism is largely driven by image status of the country and its main cities as well as affordability of access through a variety of channels such as road, rail, overland trucks and air. In relation to this the Key cities that most stand out in Kenya are Nairobi, the capital City and Mombasa, right by the coast line.

While Kenya boasts of wildlife safaris and a rich offering of diverse adventure, scenic attractions, culture, events as well as an attractive coastal strip teeming with island culture – these attractions still appeal to the European, Asian and American markets with Africans shunning what is right next door for the glamour that European and American cities have to offer. It is expected that with the rise of the Africa brand more interest in intra-Africa travel for business, investment, employment and leisure purposes more Africans will begin to consider family and group travel within Africa as an affordable and attractive option to consider.

It with this background in mind that KTB is moving to ensure that the destination diverse attractions and its two key urban centres of Nairobi and Mombasa become household names within Africa and spur a genuine interest to visit and experience the destination for business or leisure purposes.

In a recent brand study commissioned by the KTB, the findings were as follows:

- a) Kenya's profile shows weak brand perceptions overall, underperforming the Global Brand Index in most of the HDM(Hierarchical Decision Model) measures with the exception of Advocacy, where Kenya performs above the average and Awareness where the brand performance is at par with the global average
- b) Overall, Kenya performed well in Awareness, Familiarity, Consideration and Decision/Visitation. KTB would like to increase Kenya's conversion from Awareness to Consideration.
- c) As the strong Advocacy levels show, when someone experiences Kenya they are more likely to recommend it as a destination. Kenya's core assets like the Natural Beauty, Authenticity, Attractions and unique Culture would also benefit the country brand's image and reputation abroad and could possibly boost Kenya's tourism. However, to further develop the Kenya Country Brand, the focus of marketing should be on driving Awareness and Familiarity.

It is imperative that KTB launches a brand repositioning campaign through regional media platforms to support its earlier drive on global media platforms and target specifically the African region with a focus on expatriates and nationals of each country.

- d) In this recent study, Kenya was ranked 74th in the country brand index. It is ranked 8th in Africa behind Mauritius, South Africa, Namibia, Egypt, Botswana, Morocco, Tanzania, Cameroon and Sierra Leone. Insecurity, perceived and real, has played a major role in this brand erosion., The Tourism Board intends to reverse this ranking using this campaign as one of the key platforms
